AMERICAN EAGLE AIRLINES LAUNCHES NONSTOP JET SERVICE BETWEEN COLUMBUS, OH. AND NEW YORK'S JFK AIRPORT

Second Daily Flight to JFK Will Begin on July 2

FORT WORTH, Texas – American Eagle Airlines, the regional affiliate of American Airlines, today launched nonstop jet service between Port Columbus International Airport (CMH) and New York John F. Kennedy International Airport (JFK). Eagle will operate the service with 44-seat Embraer ERJ-140 jets.

“American Eagle is extremely proud to introduce this new service from Columbus to JFK,” said Mike Trochalakis, Vice President – Line Maintenance for American Eagle. “Customers will enjoy even more convenient connections on American Eagle to destinations throughout the American Airlines global network.”

“We welcome American Eagle’s new nonstop flights to JFK Airport, in addition to all the great service American and American Eagle provide from Port Columbus,” said Columbus Mayor Michael B. Coleman. “American Eagle’s investment is fantastic news for all Columbus-area corporations that travel to New York and for residents throughout Central Ohio.”

The schedule for flights between Columbus and New York JFK (all times local) is:

Columbus to New York JFK International Airport (CMH-JFK)
